

Behold, All Things Become New

Brian Newman

John 3:7-8
John 7:37-38
2 Cor. 5:17
Rev. 21:5

Reflectively

Guitar intro: E A/E E A/E E A/E Guitar simile

4 E A/E E A/E E A/E

Voice: I can feel the wind blow gently in the evening
I can see the rain fall ever turn-ing win-ter

7 E A/E E A/E E A/E

twi light hear it whis per soft ly I can hear it call ing in - to spring see it wash a way all the in ner strug - gles held in -

10 A E/G# F#m7 E/G# A E/G#

fol low me feel it blow a way the pain I don't know from where it side of me as the wa - ter starts to flow I feel the cleansing of my

13 F#m7 E/G# A B7

came but I feel His gen tle change soul - be gun to let Him have con trol

16 E A/E E A/E

Be-hold all things be-come new

He took my pride broke it in

19 F#m7 A

two

Now I've be-gun a brand new life I'm not the way I was be-fore

22 A/B E A/E

I'm not the same man an - y - more

24 E A/E E A/E E A/E

From some-thing old to some-thing new

Look at my life and see it's

27 F#m7 A

true

Ask my chil-dren ask my wife I'm not the way I was be-fore

30 A/B E DC al Fine F#m7 E/G#

I'm not the same man an - y - more

I'm not the way I was be - fo -

33 A A/B E Fine

re

I'm not the same man an - y - more